Result

The programming of this event is designed according to the favorite games of the children, such as dragon boat races that practice traditional customs in music activities. Use stories to trigger children's awareness of the Dragon Boat Festival. Teacher and children make rice dumplings and fragrant sachets by hand. During tea time, children tasted different flavors of rice dumplings. From observation, children can simply describe the customs of the Dragon Boat Festival and name the festival activities they like to participate in. The school gave each child a rice dumpling for them to share with their families and celebrate the festive season.
